

PORT NOLA
THE PORT OF NEW ORLEANS

CRUISE

ENJOY THE GETAWAY OF A LIFETIME.
THEN TAKE A FANTASTIC CRUISE.

New Orleans is the city of jazz and jambalaya, Mardi Gras and masked celebrations. There's a reason why more and more passengers choose to launch their cruise vacations from this unique city.

New Orleans is the sixth largest cruise port in the United States, and demand for cruising from the Big Easy is growing for both Caribbean and river itineraries. Port NOLA has topped one million cruise passenger movements annually for the past six years, breaking its own record each time.

The Port of New Orleans' two state-of-the-art cruise terminals with secured parking are located in the heart of the city near the historic French Quarter, family attractions, shopping, dining and hotels.

Erato Street Cruise Terminal offers more than 1,000 parking spots within the terminal, while the Julia Street Cruise Terminal, right next door to Erato, offers secured parking adjacent to the terminal.

Discover why cruising from New Orleans is like taking two vacations in one!

Port of New Orleans Cruise At-A-Glance:

- Two cruise terminals – Julia Street and Erato Street – with secure parking available.
- Carnival Cruise Line sails year round and offers 4 -14 night cruises to destinations in the Eastern and Western Caribbean and Bahamas. Norwegian Cruise Line is seasonal (November-April) and offers 5 - 9 night cruises to destinations in the Eastern and Western Caribbean and Bahamas. Royal Caribbean International is set to return in November 2022 and offers 4, 5 and 7 night cruises to the Western Caribbean. Disney Cruise Line is set to return in February 2023 and offers 4, 5 and 6 night cruises to destinations in the Western Caribbean.
- Riverine cruising is a fast growing sector at Port NOLA. American Queen Steamboat Company, American Cruise Lines and Viking Cruise Lines offer cruises along the Mississippi River into America's Heartland.
